Olivier N. Antoine is a counsel with Crowell & Moring's Antitrust Group in our New York office where he represents and advises clients on a broad range of competition and antitrust law matters in the United States and abroad. Olivier has extensive experience representing corporate clients in difficult merger investigations before the Federal Trade Commission, the Department of Justice, the European Commission and other foreign antitrust agencies. In addition, his practice includes monopolization counseling, civil and criminal antitrust enforcement matters, private antitrust litigation, and compliance counseling.

Olivier has significant experience handling strategic antitrust matters before antitrust enforcement regimes overseas and representing foreign companies in DOJ and FTC investigations. He has defended companies in antitrust investigations and merger matters in more than thirty jurisdictions outside of the United States, including the European Union, Canada, Germany, France, Mexico, Brazil, Chile, South Africa, Korea, Taiwan, and the People's Republic of China. The breadth of his international experience includes several protracted Phase II investigations before the European Commission, and the negotiations of merger remedies before the South African Competition Commission and the Brazilian Competition Authorities.

Olivier has been recognized by Global Competition Review's Who's Who Legal of Competition Lawyers in New York for 2010, and 2011.

Olivier's work has covered a broad range of industries, including satellite radio, recorded music and music publishing, telecommunications, fixed satellites, television broadcasting, oil and gas, paper and forestry products, pharmaceuticals, food products, spirits, beer, vitamins, textiles, chemicals, fertilizers, sports goods, airlines, automotive and automotive parts, semiconductors, media buying, banking, and private equity.

Olivier received a Maitrise en droit, (J.D.), cum laude, valedictorian, from the University of Paris I, Panthéon-Sorbonne in 1997, a Diplome D'Etudes Approfondies, (LL.M) cum laude, from the University of Paris I, Panthéon-Sorbonne in 1998, and an LL.M, cum laude, from Fordham University School of Law in 1999. Before joining Crowell & Moring, Olivier worked at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP in New York, where he was a litigation and antitrust attorney for 8 years.

A member of the New York Bar, Olivier is the chair of the International Antitrust and Competition Law Committee of the International Law and Practice (ILP) Section of the New York State Bar Association. Olivier also serves as a member of the legal committee of the Board of the Lycée Français de New York.
