

Arif's Law.

Washington, DC California
New York London Brussels

I am a lawyer because:

*I am constantly amazed by the world
and the people who live in it.*

How I got here:

*Born in Bangladesh, moved to Nigeria, back to Bangladesh, then to Libya, Borneo, Malaysia,
London, and finally the U.S. in 1983.*

Languages spoken:

English, Spanish, French, Urdu, Hindi, Bengali, Portuguese. Also fluent in body language!

Proudest achievement:

Being decorated by the King of Bahrain with the Order of Bahrain for my work in helping to settle a dispute between the states of Bahrain and Qatar.

Frequent flier miles:

I've represented parties from 30 countries on 5 continents — how many miles is that?

Childhood hero: Muhammad Ali

Favorite quote:

Don't judge your insides by other people's outsides.

If I were not a lawyer, I would be: A journalist or a naturalist.

Best place on Earth: Home
