Government Relief From COVID-19 Impacts on Federal Contracts and Grants

Mar.23.2020

In the last several days, the federal government released a number of guidance documents designed to ease the impacts of COVID-19 on government contractors and grantees. The guidance is summarized below:

Contractors:

- DoD Progress Payments Increase to 90% for Large Businesses and 95% for Small Businesses under DFARS Clause. On March 20, DoD issued guidance that raises the progress payment recovery rate from 80% to 90% for large businesses, and from 90% to 95% for small businesses. The DoD memorandum requires Defense contracting officers to immediately use deviations for DFARS 252.232-7004 (DoD Progress Payment Rates) and FAR 52.232-16 (Progress Payments) permitting for these larger percentage progress payments. Contractors should encourage Contracting Officers to amend their current contracts with these revised clauses in order to take advantage of these increases.
- DoD Permits Maximum Telework Flexibility for Contractors. On March 20, DoD issued guidance to Defense contracting officers to provide maximum telework flexibility for contractors. Contracting officers should work with program managers and requirements owners to permit flexibility in a contractor's place of performance without mission degradation.
