

Crowell & Moring Announces 2018 Leadership Counsel on Legal Diversity Fellow and Pathfinders

Washington – February 8, 2018: Crowell & Moring LLP is pleased to announce that Trina Fairley Barlow, a Washington-based partner in Crowell & Moring’s Labor and Employment and Government Contracts groups, has been selected as a member of the 2018 Fellows Program of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity, one of the most comprehensive legal talent development programs in the United States.

Additionally, Washington associates Charles D. Austin and Sharmistha Das have been selected to the LCLD’s Pathfinders class, a program designed to train early-career lawyers in critical career development strategies, including programming on leadership and network development.

“We are excited to continue our engagement with the LCLD Fellows Program and Pathfinders program as we strive to build a more diverse and inclusive legal profession,” said Philip T. Inglima, chair of Crowell & Moring. “Trina, Charles, and Sharmi are excellent representatives for the firm, participating in groups of experienced LCLD attorneys who have been recognized for their potential as leaders in their organizations.”

Crowell & Moring is a longstanding member of the LCLD. Since 2010, the firm has sponsored firm partners, associates, and/or summer associates in a variety of pipeline programs that have provided leadership training and development for high-potential diverse talent.
