

Crowell & Moring Featured in Global Arbitration Review's 10th Annual "GAR 100" List

Washington – May 5, 2017: Global Arbitration Review (GAR) has named Crowell & Moring LLP to its 10th edition of the "GAR 100," an annual ranking of the top 100 arbitration practices in the world. GAR is considered the leading international journal of commercial and treaty arbitration. This marks the third consecutive year Crowell & Moring has been named to this list and the sixth time overall.

GAR's editors noted Crowell & Moring's International Dispute Resolution Group's successful track record, including a victory on behalf of Khan Resources in which the firm secured a $100 million Energy Charter Treaty award against Mongolia in 2015 over the cancellation of uranium mining licenses. The guide also reported on the firm's recent achievements, including obtaining a $200 million LCIA award for a South African platinum producer, which was enforced by a U.S. court; and a favorable ICANN award over the use of the ".hotel" extension.

First published in 2007, the annual survey ranks the world's leading large and small arbitration practices and assesses firms' reputation, amount of work undertaken, and experience through researchers' audits. GAR is published by Law Business Research Limited, a publisher of research, data and analysis on international business law and international legal markets.

No aspect of this advertisement has been approved by the Bars of, or any courts in, the jurisdictions in which the lawyers are admitted to practice.
