Crowell & Moring Partner Juan Arteaga Named A New York Law Journal 'Distinguished Leader' and Minority Corporate Counsel Association 'Rising Star'

New York – August 13, 2018: Crowell & Moring LLP is pleased to announce that Juan A. Arteaga, a partner in the firm’s Antitrust Group, has been recognized with two recent honors: the New York Law Journal’s “Distinguished Leader” award and the Minority Corporate Counsel Association’s “Rising Star” award.

The NYLJ “Distinguished Leader” award recognizes New York lawyers in leadership positions “who achieved impressive results in the past year.” Arteaga was recognized for demonstrating exceptional legal and leadership skills that helped secure positive outcomes for his clients and further important initiatives within the firm and legal profession.

The MCCA “Rising Star” award honors lawyers whose professional accomplishments and public service make them “attorneys to watch.” Arteaga was selected for demonstrating a strong commitment to the “pursuit of excellence while possessing a compassion for those in need and a strong desire to give back to others.”

Arteaga is an experienced antitrust and white collar attorney with significant litigation and trial experience. He regularly represents Fortune 500 companies and senior executives in a broad range of civil and criminal antitrust matters, including litigation, merger reviews, and government and internal investigations. He also represents clients in a wide range of high-profile and complex regulatory investigations and commercial litigation, including securities litigation, shareholder derivative actions, class actions, and international arbitrations. Arteaga serves on the firm’s Diversity, Recruiting, and Professional Development committees.

Before joining Crowell & Moring, Arteaga was a Deputy Assistant Attorney General for the U.S. Department of Justice’s Antitrust Division, where he led and oversaw various high-profile civil and criminal investigations and litigation. During his four years at the Antitrust Division (2013-2017), Arteaga played a key role in nearly 15 enforcement actions, including several merger trials, and received multiple awards for his distinguished public service.

About Crowell & Moring’s Antitrust Group

Crowell & Moring's Antitrust Group is recognized as one of the leading practices in the United States and around the world. Clients engage the firm to help navigate their most complex competition law issues, including: international merger control; private damages actions; cartel investigations and litigation; government investigations; and counseling and compliance. The group’s approximately 80 lawyers routinely represent industry-leading companies in some of the largest and most complex mergers and acquisitions in recent history – including successful DOJ clearance of AT&T’s $67 billion acquisition of DIRECTV, one of the 20 largest transactions of all time – as well as in both affirmative recovery and defense-side antitrust litigation. The firm’s antitrust litigators have achieved major results, including ongoing defense of United Airlines, DuPont, CSX, leading health care distributor Owens & Minor, and Blue Cross Blue Shield companies, as well as the recovery of more than a billion dollars for antitrust clients including General Motors and Motorola.
