

Crowell & Moring Partner Nicole Janigian Simonian Named One of Latin America's Top 100 Female Lawyers

Los Angeles – October 19, 2021: Latinvex has for the second consecutive year named Nicole Janigian Simonian, co-chair of Crowell & Moring's International Trade practice and International Employment and Global Mobility Lead, as one of Latin America's Top 100 Female Lawyers.

According to Latinvex, the criteria for selection was a combination of factors, including recent track record on major deals and business, prominence of firm in Latin America, and rankings by third parties such as Chambers and Partners, Legal 500 and M&A data from Refinitiv. The list is developed by Latinvex's editorial and research staff using data from their annual survey of international law firms, as well as publicly available data.

Simonian has over 20 years of experience working as a strategic advisor for a wide range of clients, from emerging growth to Fortune 100 companies, on their market entry and global business expansion throughout Asia, Europe, Latin America, and the Middle East. Her practice covers a wide range of international compliance and regulatory issues throughout the supply chain, including cross border transactions, investigations, international trade, and global mobility.

In addition to her day to day legal practice, she co-hosts the Global Trade Talks—a podcast that shares brief perspectives on key global issues on international trade, current events, business, law, and public policy.

Latinvex publishes daily news and weekly analysis on Latin America business and provides extensive coverage of Latin America's legal, technology, and energy sectors.
