Crowell & Moring Privacy & Cybersecurity Co-Chair Evan Wolff Named Member of the Council on Foreign Relations

Washington – July 13, 2017: Crowell & Moring LLP is pleased to announce that Evan D. Wolff, partner and co-chair of Crowell & Moring’s Privacy & Cybersecurity Group, has been inducted as a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. Wolff joins the ranks of prominent leaders in the foreign policy arena who are CFR members, including top government officials, scholars, business executives, journalists, prominent lawyers, and nonprofit leaders.

Wolff is an authority on cybersecurity and privacy regulations and a thought leader on broader issues of homeland and national security. He has served as an advisor to the senior leadership at the stand-up of the Department of Homeland Security. He is a member of the Aspen Institute’s Homeland Security Group; senior advisor to the ABA Committee on Law and National Security; senior advisor to The Chertoff Group; an adjunct professor at George Mason University School of Law; a fellow with the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars; a member of the Sandia National Lab External Advisory Board, and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce National Security Task Force.

CFR is an independent, nonpartisan membership organization, think tank, and publisher dedicated to being a resource for its members, government officials, business executives, journalists, educators and students, civic and religious leaders, and other interested citizens in order to help them better understand the world and the foreign policy choices facing the United States and other countries. The Council also has a robust Cybersecurity section that focuses on digital policy and technology and innovation.

Founded in 1921, CFR carries out its mission by maintaining a diverse membership, including special programs to promote interest and develop expertise in the next generation of foreign policy leaders and publishing Foreign Affairs, the preeminent journal of international affairs and U.S. foreign policy.
