Crowell & Moring's Coronavirus Resource Center Recognized As One of the "Best COVID-19 Resource Centers" Among Law Firms

Washington – April 21, 2020: Crowell & Moring's Coronavirus Resource Center was recognized as one of the best in the industry by Good2bSocial, a digital marketing agency for lawyers and companies in the legal industry. The agency compiled the list based on their interpretation of firms who are providing "unique insights and resources" to keep their visitors informed in a timely manner.

Good2bSocial highlighted how the firm is "very actively engaged in a number of ways to help inform people on the legal and operational challenges caused by COVID-19, focused around the outbreak." In the agency's write-up, the ease of finding a specialized attorney was pointed out as a crucial part of the list of "practice areas where clients and prospects face their most immediate concerns." Also noted in the recognition was how the firm provides "easy access to... resources, guides, and on-demand webinars, along with a COVID-19 Tool Kit for New Contractors that answers frequently asked questions."
