

Crowell & Moring's Shira Liu Appointed Editor in Chief of The California Antitrust and Unfair Competition Law Treatise

Orange County – October 6, 2022: Shira Liu, Crowell & Moring counsel and member of the Antitrust & Competition Group, has been appointed editor in chief of The California Antitrust and Unfair Competition Law Treatise.

The Treatise is published by the Antitrust and Unfair Competition Law Section of the California Lawyers Association and serves as “a must-have reference guide that comprehensively documents and describes California antitrust, unfair competition, and trade regulation laws.” The Treatise is comprehensively updated each year by experienced antitrust and UCL practitioners in the private and government sectors throughout the state.

Liu’s practice focuses on representing clients in complex state and federal antitrust litigation matters across a wide range of industries, including the technology, health care, and energy industries. Liu is also a member of the executive committee of the Section, which aims “to engage, inform, and inspire generations of lawyers to further the practice of antitrust and competition law in California.”
