Crowell & Moring's Tiffany Wynn Elected a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation

Washington – July 7, 2021: Tiffany Wynn, a counsel in Crowell & Moring's White Collar & Regulatory Enforcement Group in Washington, D.C., has been elected a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation (ABF).

Wynn joins the global honorary society of attorneys, judges, law faculty, and legal scholars whose public and private careers have demonstrated outstanding dedication to the highest principles of the legal profession and to the welfare of their communities. Membership in the Fellows is limited to one percent of lawyers licensed to practice in each jurisdiction. Members are nominated by their peers and elected by the ABF Board.

Wynn's practice focuses on white collar criminal defense, regulatory enforcement actions, government investigations, and corporate internal investigations. She has represented individuals and companies in investigations led by the DOJ, SEC, and other federal and state regulators in matters involving allegations of fraud and regulatory non-compliance, including Foreign Corrupt Practices Act violations, money laundering infractions, environmental crimes, and False Claims Act matters and litigation.

The American Bar Foundation is among the world's leading research institutes for the empirical and interdisciplinary study of law. An independent, nonprofit organization for nearly 70 years, the ABF seeks to advance the understanding and improvement of law through research projects of unmatched scale and quality on the most pressing issues facing the legal system in the United States and the world.
