DuPont Legal Honors Crowell & Moring with 2004 Challenge Award

Washington, D.C. – March 23, 2005: Crowell & Moring was recognized by Dupont Legal with the 2004 Challenge Award for its contributions to the DuPont Legal Model. The firm was rewarded for its creative utilization of value-based and alternative fee arrangements; outstanding commitment and support of the Six Sigma Program in Dupont Legal; and outstanding services and results, particularly in the area of plaintiffs' recovery opportunities.

In a letter to Crowell & Moring dated March 15, Stacey J. Mobley, senior vice president and chief administrative officer and general counsel of Dupont, said, "Crowell & Moring is deserving of recognition for its outstanding legal work, its involvement in and support of the Dupont Legal initiatives, and its adherence to the highest ideals of the Dupont Legal Model. Congratulations on "Meeting the Challenge in 2004."
