Ethisphere Institute Names Antitrust Partner Juan Arteaga to 2017 List of 'Attorneys Who Matter'

Washington – October 27, 2017: Crowell & Moring LLP is pleased to announce that Juan A. Arteaga, a partner in the firm's Antitrust Group, has been named as one of Ethisphere Institute's 2017 "Attorneys Who Matter." He was recognized in the private-practice category. This list recognizes lawyers who have risen to the top of their field based on a combination of various criteria, including recognized expertise, peer and client endorsements, success in high-profile matters, and public service and community engagement.

Before joining Crowell & Moring this summer, Arteaga was a senior official in the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice from 2013 to 2017. Most recently, he served as the Deputy Assistant Attorney General for Civil Enforcement, where he helped oversee the Antitrust Division's mergers and anticompetitive practices enforcement program. At Crowell & Moring, Arteaga focuses primarily on advising companies, boards of directors, and executives on a broad range of civil and criminal antitrust matters, including litigation, merger reviews, government and internal investigations, and counseling regarding various business practices. Arteaga also represents clients in a wide range of high-stakes, complex commercial litigation matters, including securities litigation, shareholder derivative actions, class actions, and international arbitrations.

Other notable individuals recognized by Ethisphere include Alex Dimitrief, SVP and General Counsel, GE; Jay Clayton, Chair, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; David Zapolsky, SVP, General Counsel, and Secretary, Amazon; Kim Rivera, Chief Legal Officer and General Counsel, HP Inc.; and Brad Smith, President and Chief Legal Officer, Microsoft.
