Forbes Names Crowell & Moring to List of America's Top Corporate Law Firms

Washington – October 10, 2019 – Forbes magazine listed Crowell & Moring as one of the “Top Corporate Law Firms in America.”

Forbes partnered with market research company Statista to create its inaugural list of top U.S. corporate law firms. The list highlights firms in 17 recommended practice areas based on survey responses from 2,500 lawyers, both at law firms and in-house at companies, according to the magazine. Crowell & Moring was recommended in the practice area of bankruptcy.

The firm’s Corporate Group is an interdisciplinary team of corporate and regulatory lawyers that offers a full-service corporate practice with an emphasis on bankruptcy and creditors’ rights, M&A, joint ventures and strategic partnerships, securities and corporate finance, complex outsourcing, and IP and commercial arrangements. The firm’s bankruptcy team has a national practice and plays leading roles in some of the most prominent bankruptcies. The Corporate Group works with large international and domestic public companies, mid-sized and emerging businesses, privately held firms, private equity sponsors and hedge funds, investment firms, and high net-worth individuals across a wide range of industries.
