Jeane A. Thomas Recipient of Kroll Ontrack's Electronic Evidence Thought Leading Antitrust Practitioner Award

Washington, D.C. – March 23, 2005: Jeane A. Thomas, a partner in the firm's Antitrust Group, has been selected as the recipient of Kroll Ontrack's Electronic Evidence Thought Leading Antitrust Practitioner Award. This is the third year of the annual Electronic Evidence Thought Leadership Awards, presented to law firms, corporations, government entities and individuals based on contributions to the body of law, practice and procedure in electronic discovery and computer forensics. Winners were selected through a formal nomination process.

This year's award winners were formally recognized at a lunch reception in conjunction with the Daily Journal LegalWorks West Coast Conference & Exhibition in San Francisco, Calif.

Thomas is engaged in all types of antitrust representations, including mergers and joint ventures, class and individual civil litigation, and civil and criminal government investigations.
