

Laura Foggan Named to Benchmark Litigation's 2021 “Top 250 Women in Litigation” List

Washington – August 11, 2021: Benchmark Litigation has named Laura Foggan, partner and chair of Crowell & Moring’s Insurance/Reinsurance Group, to its “Top 250 Women in Litigation” list for the seventh consecutive year. The list recognizes distinguished female litigators across the U.S. who have participated “in some of the most impactful litigation matters in recent history, as well as by earning the hard-won respect of their peers and clients.”

Foggan has been repeatedly recognized as one of the nation’s elite insurance lawyers, and she is one of the industry’s leading attorneys, counseling insurers and reinsurers on strategic opportunities, litigation trends, and emerging risks such as COVID-19, autonomous vehicles and drones, privacy and cyberliability, global warming, internet-of-things, artificial intelligence, and utilization of blockchain or distributed-ledger technology. She litigates complex, and often high-profile, coverage disputes, including coverage for product liability, mass tort, and privacy claims in state and federal courts. Her practice encompasses trial and appellate matters, as well as arbitration and mediation of significant disputes.

Benchmark’s research process involves months of investigation into litigators’ professional activities, client feedback surveys, and one-on-one interviews. To see the full list of Benchmark’s “Top 250 Women in Litigation,” visit here.

Contact: Andrew Loeb
 Communications Specialist
 +1 202.624.2792
 aloeb@crowell.com