

London Partner Robin Baillie Named a Lexology “Client Choice Award” Winner

London – November 28, 2022: Lexology has named Robin Baillie a 2022 “Client Choice Award” winner. The award series recognizes individuals around the world that “stand apart for the excellence in client care and quality of their service.”

This year’s winners were chosen from a pool of more than 2,000 individual client assessments.

Lawyers can only be nominated by corporate counsel. Lexology, an online publisher of legal articles and information, recognized 651 winners across 70 jurisdictions worldwide. The winners will be honored at a gala in London in early 2023.

Baillie, a partner in Crowell & Moring’s Energy Group in London, has more than two decades of experience advising clients on energy and infrastructure projects around the world. He has a broad infrastructure project practice advising developers, project sponsors, infrastructure funds, government bodies, lenders, contractors and operators on a wide range of projects involving energy, transport, health care, education, and accommodation. The work involved includes project development, project finance, and acquisition and divestiture.
