PLC Which lawyer? Yearbook* Recommends Crowell & Moring in Intellectual Property, Life Sciences Intellectual Property and Telecommunications

Washington, D.C. – March 24, 2005: PLC Which lawyer? Yearbook, formerly known as Global Counsel 3000, recommended Crowell and Moring in the areas of Intellectual Property, Life Sciences Intellectual Property, and Telecommunications.

Kristof Roon was recommended in Intellectual Property and Life Sciences: Intellectual Property, and Thomas De Meese was mentioned in Telecommunications. Both are partners in the firm's Brussels office.

The book provides law firm and individual recommendations by practice in more than 70 jurisdictions around the world. Surveys of in-house counsel in the companies listed in the PLC Law Department Profiles and private practitioner interviews are used to gather recommendations.
