Euromoney Names Laura Foggan to Women in Business Law Americas Awards 2021 Shortlist

Washington – May 4, 2021: Euromoney has named Crowell & Moring partner Laura Foggan to the Women in Business Law Americas Awards 2021 shortlist in the Best in Insurance & Reinsurance category. The annual awards “recognise leading women for their contributions to the practice of business law along with the firms that have developed the most progressive initiatives towards diversity and inclusion from throughout the continent.”

Foggan is chair of the firm’s Insurance/Reinsurance Group and has been repeatedly recognized by her peers as one of the nation’s elite insurance lawyers. She is one of the industry’s leading attorneys helping insurance companies tackle emerging issues and maximize opportunities in the digital age. She litigates complex, and often high-profile, coverage disputes, product liability, and privacy claims in state and federal courts. Her practice encompasses trial and appellate matters, as well as arbitration and mediation of significant disputes.
