

Four Crowell & Moring Partners Recognized Among "2015 Client Service All-Stars" By BTI Consulting Group

Washington, D.C. – February 11, 2015: Crowell & Moring LLP is pleased to announce that San Francisco-based litigation partner Doug Sullivan, corporate partner Murray Indick, and senior counsel Mike Kahn, as well as Washington, D.C.-based partner and Government Contracts Group co-chair, Dan Forman, have been named to BTI Consulting Group's list of 2015 "Client Service All-Stars." The BTI list recognizes attorneys for their superior client focus, innovative thought leadership, unmatched business understanding, legal skills, outsized value, and outstanding results delivered to clients, according to a survey of general counsel conducted by BTI. This is the third consecutive year that Sullivan and Kahn have been named to the All-Stars list, as well as the second consecutive year that they have been named to the "Client Service All-Star MVP" list.

According to BTI, President Michael Rynowecer, "The winning attorneys were recognized by their corporate counterparts for a number of reasons, including the ability to focus on the clients' desired end game — regardless of whether that means a win or a settlement." Only 30 percent of firms on the BTI list have more than one All-Star. Of the All-Stars named by BTI for 2015, just twelve are in the Bay Area, with Crowell & Moring being the only firm with three Bay Area standouts. Forman, who represents the Washington office in this year's All-Star list, co-leads the firm's Government Contracts Group, which is widely considered one of the largest and most reputable government contracts practices in the United States and worldwide.

Crowell & Moring LLP is an international law firm with more than 500 lawyers representing clients in high-stakes litigation and arbitration, regulatory, and transactional matters.
