PER CURIAM:

Plaintiffs, Skillets, LLC, Good Breakfast, LLC, and Skillets Holdings, LLC, which are corporate operators of several Florida restaurants, appeal the district court's order granting Colony Insurance Company's ("Colony") motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' complaint for declaratory judgment and breach of contract. Plaintiffs' claims stemmed from Colony's denial of insurance benefits that Plaintiffs assert Colony owed them to cover business losses sustained during the COVID-19 pandemic. We have reviewed the record and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm the district court's order. See Skillets, LLC v. Colony Ins. Co., No. 3:20-cv-00678-HEH (E.D. Va. Mar. 10, 2021); see also SA Palm Beach, LLC v. Certain Underwriters at Lloyd's London, 32 F.4th 1347, 1359 (11th Cir. 2022) (agreeing that "the majority position [regarding physical alteration] is legally sound under Florida law"). We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
